Telegrams.

(Per Havas Agency.)

United Kingdom

London, 3rd—Dr. Jameson began the fight near Johannesburg with barely one thousand men, the English in the Transvaal having failed to support him as they promised. The Boers were prepared for him with three thousand men, who easily surrounded his whole force. A bloody fight ensued in which Jameson and his men displayed great valour; but they had to succumb to the numbers and accurate aim of the Boers, having lost many men. General Joubert, at the head of the Boers, stormed Jameson's camp and forced him and the rest of his men to surrender. The invaders lost 50 men in the fight and the Boers half that number.

The moment President Krueger heard of Jameson's raid he telegraphed to the German Emperor for support, which was promised him.

This morning's papers insist on the Government demanding from President Krueger the rights of citizenship for British residents in Transvaal, which they have so long been asking for.

The German Emperor has sent President Krueger a telegram congratulating him on his victory over the Chartered Company's forces.

A telegram from Capetown says that in the first fight between the Chartereds and the Boers the former had eleven killed and twenty three wounded, the latter being all taken prisoners. Amongst them were three British officers.

Sir J. Robinson arrived at Pretoria today to open negotiations for arranging quietly all pending questions.

The Turkish Government affirms that the recent massacres in Orfah were perpetrated by deserters from the Turkish army. It is calculated that several hundreds of thousands of Armenian have been driven out of Asia Minor since the commencement of the massacres.

President Krüger is reported to have dispatched Herr von Zwieten to Europe to purchase arms and amunition. The Transvaal commissioner is also entrusted with the task of engaging German officers to instruct the troops of the Boer Republic.

There is some uneasiness in political circles at the general unanimity of opinion amongst the Powers as regards Great Britain's action in the question with the Boers.

France

The French papers are unanimous in saying that the independence of the Transvaal republic must be upheld.

Cordial despatches were exchanged to-day between the Admiral of the Russian squadron anchored off Smyrna and the Admiral in command of the port of Brest.

Germany

Berlin, 3rd—Prince Bismark is now in excellent health, and received yesterday several deputations who went to wish him a happy New Year.

The semi-official papers urge the Government to interfere to preserve the "Statu quo antes" in the Transvaal republic.

The Emperor William held to-day a long conference with Prince Hohenlohe the Chancellor and Marshal Riberstein the Foreign Secretary. A telegram was subsequently despatched to President Krüger of the Transvaal congratulating him on the defeat of the chartered company's forces led by Dr. Jameson.

The principal German papers insist that the Transvaal Republic, now that they have Dr. Jameson in their clutches, instead of treating him as a prisoner of war, should hang him as a common bandit-chieftain.

Spain

Madrid, 3rd—It is announced from Porto Rico that yellow fever has broken out there with great violence.

A telegram from Havana states that General Martinez Campos has left with a strong force to follow up the retreating insurgent bands which are cutting the telegraph wires running to the Capital, wrecking the railways and blowing up the bridges. Important encounters between the royal troops and the rebels are momentarily expected.

Hungary

Budapesth, 3rd—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here this morning, but no damage was done.

United States

New York, 3rd—The latest news from Cuba is that the centre of operations of the rebels now is only 45 miles from Havanah. The Spaniards claim another victory in Matanzas province. The telegrams from each side are so flatly contradictory that it is hard to believe any of them, but the Spaniards do not seem to have had the best of the recent fighting.

Italy

Rome 3rd—Documents have been found in the archives of the Vatican which prove conclusively that the territory claimed by England in Venezuela formed part of the diocese of Caracas long before Great Britain occupied what is now called British Guyana.

With the exception of the semi-official organ Fanfulla, all the papers of the Capital persist in their assertion that Adua is in the hands of the Abyssinians.

The Don Marzio asserts that King Menelik is warring in the South of the Tigre Province with King Goggiam who has revolted against him at the head of a force of 10,000 well armed men.

The Red Cross Association has received a large number of offerings amongst them an anonymous donation of 10,000 lires for the did of the wounded in the African Campaign.

A despatch from Massauah states that the cable to Assab is again in working order.

Austria

Vienna, 3rd—According to telegrams from Budapest, the Hungarian Government appears now to be willing to bear 35% of the expenditure allowed for in the Budget for the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Turkey.

Constantinople, 3rd—Brigandage is on the increase in the Province of Scutari. Several cases have occurred during the last few days but in no instance have the police been able to effect a capture.

Russia

St. Petersburg, 3rd—The Russian Press especially the Novosti and Novoie Vremya bitterly attacks England, for the recent invasion of the Transvaal. In the articles published, Europe is exhorted to set a strict watch on England, who it is affirmed is endeavouring to disturb the peace of the world in every continent.

Roumania.

Bucharest, 3rd—The opposition to the Government is increasing, and a change in the Cabinet is considered inevitable.

Chile

Valparaiso, 3rd—It is thought that yesterday's great fire was the work of an incendiary.

President Montt gives a grand banquet to-day to the Bolivian Minister, Gutierrez, to celebrate the signing of the treaty.

The Minister of the Interior was questioned in the Senate last night about the rumoured cases of cholera in Buenos Aires.

A telegram from Lima reports that the Junta Departemental has ceased its functions from sheer want of funds.

Brazil.

Rio, 3rd—The Italians here are subscribing to present a silk and gold flag to the Argentine cruiser Garibaldi, which is expected here about the middle of February.

Luminous buoys are about to be laid on the North and South Coasts condensed gas will be used.

Exchange 9 1/8.

Argentine Republic

Rosario, 3rd—The Santa Fé millers are getting up another petition to the National Government for Protection. They say their trade will otherwise be ruined.

Wheat is quoted to-day at $6.85, and for January and February delivery at 6.50 and 6.60. Linseed 10.60 to 10.80.

As a sanitary precaution the pipe water is now inspected daily.

TRANSVAAL.

The New Year has opened with the astounding news of another invasion of this African Dutch Republic by a band of Bechuanaland adventurers under the command of a man named Jameson. We are happy to say that the moment the news of this invasion was known in England the Government at once discountenanced it. The hardy Boer sheep-farmers were, however, more than a match for the marauders, and made short work of Jameson and his men. Her Majesty Queen Victoria was so annoyed at this Jameson invasion that she at once ordered her grandson-in-law, the Duke of Fife, to resign the chairmanship of the Company which Jameson represented. Mr. Joe Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, at once telegraphed to Sir Hercules Robinson, Governor of Cape Town, condemning in the very strongest terms the conduct of Jameson and the Chartered Company, and requesting him to use his influence to save the unfortunate English prisoners and wounded in the hands of the Boers. The Times and all the London papers also condemned the conduct of Jameson, who got cut to pieces by the Boer troops under the command of General Joubert. Jameson was surrounded by the Boers and after a very short fight was compelled to surrender. If there be any Major Lothaire amongst the Boers, Dr. Jameson will have long ere this paid the penalty of his invasion. Telegrams from Cape Town, dated 2nd January, state that in the other parts of South Africa they are recruiting fast to invade Transvaal, and that in the Free Orange State they are gathering men to help the Boers.

On Thursday night another telegram was received in London by the Government from Sir Hercules Robinson, the Governor, announcing that in obedience to his instructions from the Foreign Office, he had despatched a 'chasque' in the night to overtake Jameson and bring him back, and that when Jameson received the order he promised to obey, but that the moment the messenger left to return, Jameson and his men mounted their horses and marched against the Boers. Sir Jaco de Witt, British agent in Pretoria, telegraphed that it was impossible for him to reach Jameson, and even if he could it was useless, as the battle came off at 4 p. m. that afternoon and Jameson and his men were completely cut to pieces. The fight took place close to Johannesberg. Jameson had 800 men troops from Bechuanaland with 6 Maxim guns, and all the troops carried the English flag. They had reached as far as Rustemburg without firing a shot and were pushing on to Johannesburg, when they came up on the Boers who made sharp, short work of the whole division. The news caused great excitement in Berlin where the Emperor has declared that a German intervention will be necessary if England should threaten the independence of Transvaal, and the German Government has the intention of coming to an agreement with France and England in order to intervene in Transvaal.

The following particulars about Transvaal will be read with interest as they are the freshest to date:—

The free state of Orange is a vast desert situated 5000 feet above the level of the sea. The climate is very dry and healthy. The whole country is a series of hills crowned with large stones. About the year 1840, a great number of Boers abandoned the Cape to avoid the continual invasion of English troops and settled between two large rivers called Vaal and Orange. A republic quickly sprang up. But the Boers continued to be pursued by the English. In 1845 the Boers invaded their neighbours' territory. The Gricas were aided by the English and the Boers were turned out. England annexed the territory of Orange in 1845 and gave the Boers their liberty in 1853. In 1870 diamond mines were discovered in Kimberley, seven years later England again annexed Transvaal. In 1880 the Boers revolted and defeated the British troops under Sir Romeroy Colley at Mayuba Hill. Sir Romeroy Colley was killed in the action.

The two South African Republics contain three towns, which are Bloemfontein Pretoria and Johannesburg. Bloemfontein has between 5 and 6000 inhabitants and has every appearance of a modern city. It contains a large market, comfortable clubs etc. but plenty of dust above all. Parliament House and the Government House are very fine buildings. The garrison of the town only amounts to 40 men dressed as Prussian soldiers. The inhabitants are very brave and excellent shots. Twenty-thousand of them could be mobilized in case of necessity.

Pretoria is the capital of Transvaal and is a very fine city. The Government House cost $250,000 and is considered the fiuest building in South Africa.

Johannesburg, the city of Gold, is certainly the most important of the three towns. It was founded in 1887 and has now a population of 60,000 inhabitants. The city is most solidly built, and contains large hotels, and shops equal to those seen in many a European city. The suburbs are dotted over with beautiful Villas shaded by large trees. Johannesburg is entirely a cosmopolitan city in which every nationality except Boers is represented. The site which to day is occupied by the fine town was eight years ago a mere desert occupied by a few nomads. There was no water, no timber. In fact to-day the city is one of the finest in the world. There is an abundance of water supplied by well cut canals. Wide, well paved and lighted streets, churches, theatres, hotels, fine parks and in fact everything which goes to make up a European city. The history of Johannesburg is the history of San Francisco and in fact the history of every town in the neighbourhood of which magic gold has been discovered.

Mr. Paul Kruger, President of Transvaal is a most striking character both personally and politically. He is 70 years of age. Rather low sized and of very square build. When he was a boy he chopped off the thumb of his left hand to prevent poisoning. He barely knows how to write and only speaks a dialect derived from the Dutch language. He has been nick named Uncle Paul. During an interview with Max O'Rell he stated that he he could mobilize 20,000 in case of necessity, and Uncle Paul wound up the interview by declaring that Transvaal would never submit to British rule.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

THE GALE.

THE DISMEMBERMENT OF TURKEY.

THE EDUCATION QUESTION.

(From our own Correspondent).

London. Nov. 25th.

A violent north-eastern gale has been blowing for three days, causing some disasters at sea. The channel service yesterday was completely suspended. To-day it is partially renewed, but only "via" Folkeston. The steamers cannot enter Calais harbour. The Foam, carrying the midday mail yesterday—Sunday—from Dover arrived off the Calais harbour after a long and tempestuous passage. On trying to enter, she was caught by a green sea 20 feet high and nearly swamped. The harbour authorities signalled to her not to continue the attempt. The Foam had to turn round with her luckless passengers and finally, at night, reached Dover after a still worse passage in the teeth of the gale. The seas came clean over her, the passengers and their luggage floating about the deck promiscuously-like.

On Saturday the Bathhurst left Liverpool with Sir Francis Scott, the commander of the Ashanti expedition, about 30 officers and some troops. The morning was fine when they arrived at the Riverside station, and the steamer glided gaily down the Mersey amid the cheers of the crowds on the piers and the blowing of the ferry-steamers' fog-horns. Amongst the happy party on board the Bathhurst were a pilot and a newspaper correspondent whom the ship intended to drop at the bell-buoy. Alas! the North-Easter began already to show its nose there, so that the unfortunate correspondent with the pilot was, at the imminent risk of his life literally "dropped" into a boat off Holyhead. Prince Victor of Schleswig Holstein, 2nd Aid-de-Camp to General Scott, suffered exceedingly. The gale afterwards was blowing right aft, but they must have had a time of it. The envoys, with more of the expedition, leave on Wednesday from Liverpool in the Roquelle, which will arrive on the coast about the same date as the Bathhurst—the 13th of December. The last words of Sir Francis were—"we shall go to Kumasi". This in spite of the envoys, whose peace proposals were not entertained by Mr. Chamberlain.

The approach of the combined squadrons of the seven Powers—the United States ships are fitting out—seem to have little effect upon the Porte. The Sultan may or may not be acting loyally in suppressing disturbances, but he is evidently powerless at present, for massacres proceed, and an insurrection in Crete is now added to his troubles. The rumour to-day is that a European Conference will be summoned. With singular want of tact Mr. Francis Seymour Stevenson, M.P., publishes in the Daily News this morning a scheme for the dismemberment of Turkey. It is issued in his private capacity, but, as he happens to be a leading official of the British Armenian Association, the Sultan's sympathy with his Armenian subjects will not be increased by a scheme which proposes to limit Turkey in Europe to Constantinople as a free city with a few miles of hinterland—or innerland—and divide Turkey in Asia between Russia, Greece and France, giving Egypt and Arabia to England. Austria is to have charge of Constantinople under a European Committee of Control, and certain territorial compensation in European Turkey. Greece is to have Salonika, and Italy is to have Tripoli and Albania if she will take it. The scheme is premature, absurd and, in the main, a copy of Louis Napoleon's new map of Europe published forty years ago. Something of the kind will obviously be the end of the question. At this moment we are only at the beginning, and as Mr. Gladstone says, at a "crucial moment." The Daily News has not displayed much judgment in giving prominence to a thing that can do no good and might produce mischief. The scheme resembles one already put forth by two Russian journals. It is entirely opposed to Lord Salisbury's policy, who is at present leading the team — and where? It will be difficult to get a European conference to limit its councils strictly to the suppression of present disorders in the Ottoman Empire. And if it is not so limited, the questions that may arise are beyond all ordinary forecast.

Sir Philip Currie has arrived at Constantinople, but has not yet had time to take any further steps. What little news there is from Stamboul to-day is not very reassuring.

Matters look equally black at home, though we are in hopes that the Government has indiscreetly shown a card it does not intend to play. I observe that the strong weekly journals which have, since the defeat of the Liberal party, been sullen and silent, are beginning to speak out angrily against the threatened attack of the church upon the school boards. Remember that the predominant partner, stupid as it is in some respects, is Liberal, in spite of the eddies and back-wash caused by the mere swing of the pendulum. England may be indifferent about home rule, and not yet prepared to destroy the House of Lords, which her instincts tell her would mean eventually the destruction of the Monarchy, but if she can be induced to tolerate for a day clerical ascendancy, it must coma in a fair, straightforward Lnglish guise. If voluntary schools are to be supported—good, all honest work and for a legitimate end English people will support. If Anglican archbishops come to us with a lie in their mouths, and under the pretence of pleading for religion aim a blow at the educational system it costs us so much to create and which has been a blessing to the land, all minor questions will be thrust aside. The intellect of this country that treats with contemptuous indifference the squabbles of political parties will arise and smite the philistines hip and thigh. I do not think, with the sound of the hammers when scaffolds were erected for false-hearted kings and ambitious priests still ringing in our ears, the dodge "hinted at" by Archbishop Benson at Brighton will be attempted. Lord Salisbury "tried it on" there and at the Foreign Office, but he is too shrewd and cynical a man to risk reprisals when the pendulum, as he is fond of saying "takes another swing". Besides, his own colleagues, the Duke of Devonshire, Sir John Gorst and Mr. Chamberlain are opposed to him on this question.

* * *

The settlement on the Stock Exchange has commenced and will last till next Monday. There is nothing to record to-day except that there seems more enquiry for money owing to the improvement in trade, which would be more pronounced but for the miserable dispute in the North. There are hopes of the employers and the men coming to terms this week. Surely the fact that the Chinese are now in the market with £10,000,000 for armaments, and that our friends and powerful rivals, the Germans, are polishing up their machinery to get the trade we heedlessly cast aside, must influence the counsels of both men and masters. Future labour wars to be effective must be international. In that way they may become an instrument of concord among civilized nations. The chancelleries will be held in check by the workmen's associations.

THE AMBI-ALAGI DISASTER.

FULL PARTICULARS.

The following are the full particulars of the Ambi-Alagi disaster, which ended in the death of Major Toselli and the annihilation of the forces under his command:

General Arimondi received notice that the Scionas were going to make a decided advance on the Italian lines, and he immediately despatched an aide-de-camp to Major Toselli, stationed at Ambi-Alagi, ordering him to fall back on Makalle, but it is believed that the aide-de-camp was surprised and made prisoner on the way, as he never delivered the order he carried in his "sabretache." It is also asserted that Major Toselli was fully confident of resisting any attack made by the enemy, and he was therefore in no hurry to join General Baratieri at Adigrat. The forces under Major Toselli consisted of five companies of native troops, led by 20 Italian officers and 40 sub-officers (a rank above sergeant). This force was supported by a battery of mountain artillery, the total number of rank and file amounting to 1,200 men. It is, nevertheless, most astonishing that Major Toselli should have been suddenly surprised by a force exceeding 20,000 men, especially as he was situated on a height commanding a view of the surrounding country. The fight began at 6.30 on the morning of the 7th of December, Ras O'Leary making a terrific attack on the Major's left wing, following this manœuvre by trying to hem in the whole of Toselli's forces.

The right wing then resisted a tremendous dash made by 10,000 Scionas led by Rases Mangascia and Allelujah. Toselli was anxiously expecting General Arimondi's forces coming up from the rear, but Arimondi (like Blucher at Waterloo) arrived when the battle was almost finished. The unequal fight lasted until 5.30, when Major Toselli sounded a retreat along the whole of his line. He ordered two companies to cover this retreat. But the order was next to useless, as the enemy regularly pushed the remaining troops down the narrow defile leading to the plain, and choked up with mules, carrying wounded soldiers. Nevertheless the brave native troops faced about at intervals and fired a volley at the enemy who still continued their mission of slaughter. Major Toselli was the last to leave the field covered with wounds, his clothes torn to shreds by bullets and lance thrusts. A bullet put an end to his suffering, but not before he had managed to save 300 of his men who managed to join General Arimondi, who arrived too late to turn the defeat into victory. Just before descending from the heights Lieutenants Cuzzi and Fragella threw all the guns, ammunition and mules over the precipice, lest they should fall into the hands of an enemy by no means unaccustomed to handle modern quick-firing guns. Captain Persico, who had the command of the battery, was shot early in the fight. Previous to throwing away the pieces Lieutenant Manfredi loaded them with grape shot and fired at the enemy 100 paces distant. Major Toselli's bravery and coolness during the terrible day is without parallel.

SAN ISIDRO.

In San Isidro yesterday, about 11 a.m., there occurred a most frightful outrage. Ticket-Inspector Suarez left the train to visit his house, some five squares from the station.

A carpenter called Lizarraga, who had been "sacked" the day previous at Victoria Station, followed him, and about half a square from the station on Calle Martin Omar addressed some words to Suarez, who turned to reply, and he was immediately knocked down by a heavy blow from a stick that Lizarraga carried with him; while lying prostrate on the ground he was struck many times on the head, face, lips and limbs, the stick breaking with the force of his blows.

The cries of the poor Inspector were painful in the extreme. A policeman behind the parties witnessed the assault, and drawing his sword rushed to the rescue, seized the assailant and conducted him to the Police Office.

The wounded Inspector crossed the street and staggered towards his home, some kind persons assisting him.

The cowardly ruffian who committed the assault boasted of his bloody deed, and said this will show you how the injured pay their debts, or words to that effect. He was taken to the Police Station and depositions were taken by the Commissary. It seems that Lizarraga's brother is an official in the Police Force, and the result is that the assailant was liberated, and this morning he appeared at the station, apparently ready to assault other officials of the F.C.C.A. should they happen to promote his displeasure.

It is to be hoped that those in authority in the F.C.C.A. will follow this matter up, and bring to condign punishment this cowardly scamp.

SPORT

We hear that quite a crowd of turfites embark to-night for Montevideo for the Oriental Grand International in which no less than four B. Aires candidates will face the starter, viz: Landseer, Revancha, Alcaide and Sebastopol, and we do not think that they will make a bad show, though the Oriental crack Imperial on his own ground give them a very inhospitable reception; however, it is rumoured that he is amiss and though our neighbours have some fairly good horses we hardly think they have anything brilliant enough to outpace the Argentine contingent. The meeting promises to be an unusually interesting one, and the Maroñas course will be well attended.

A few days ago we gave some data of the past season, which we can now supplement. The numbers of sport tickets sold have not yet been published, but basing calculations on the average of 378 meetings out of the total of 421 we see that no less than 2,752,710 tickets to win and 2,322,756 for place were disposed of, that is to say, over 5 millions tickets, which at $2 each give $10,000,000 as the sum that has changed hands, and been won or lost, by a nose or neck, or in a common canter, as the case may be during the year, and as the commission is a substantial tithe the two Clubs have benefitted to the extent of a round million dollars between them, the lion's share of course falling to the Jockey Club. It seems quite on the cards that next year the lion will want the whole.

The Minister of the Interior has authorized the Rosario Railway Company to run trains over the swing-bridge at San Fernando, to facilitate the laying of the rails to the Tigre.

Government has declared lapsed Mr. Mariano Loza's concession for a Railway from Goya to Sucero, and his deposit of $30,000 confiscated to the State.

Government has approved the Plans of the Pacific Company for a station and siding at Kil. 675, where there is a junction with the branch to the new Military Polygon at Mercedes (San Luis) of the land donated for the encampment by the Messrs Mernirhu: the Company will be given 50,000 metres for the station and siding.

TERRITORY OF SANTA CRUZ.

The rearing of live stock of all kinds has already attained a considerable state of development in the country that we are describing; and the fields that until recently were the exclusive dominion of the wild beast, to-day abound in sheep and cows, apart from others, such as goats and pigs, which altogether represent a large sum of money. It may be said that the progress of the Government of Santa Cruz dates from a very short time ago. At the end of 1886, according to official investigation of that date, the number of sheep was 9,800; the cows were not more than 3,000; horses and mares were considered insufficient for the necessities of the very small traffic and other rural services of those days. What changes have come about during the last nine years! In a ringle department of the territory, that of Rio Gallegos; there are at present about 180,000 cross-Lincoln sheep, in that of Santa Cruz 25,000 animals of all kinds; in that of San Julian 9,000, in that of Deseado 13,000.

What better argument could be produced to show the excellence of the Patagonian fields, formerly so much deprecated and feared on account their wearying solitudes? Which of the other southern territories has progressed so rapidly, without the Argentine Government having had to spend enormous sums?

It is a case of spontaneous and useful immigration worthy of attracting attention, although the proportions be small. Until a short time ago, the southern extremity of the continent was considered by Europeans as an inhabitable desert. Terrible adventures with the Tehuelche Indians were related; and in speaking of the climate of Patagonia the words "Siberia" and "Glacial" were among the geographic fantasies. The Argentine explorers, from Moreno to Fontana, have contributed in no small degree to the raising of the veil of mysteries that covered these lands, and claim for progress and civilization these rich regions of the future. To-day new fields are being opened out for foreign energy and capital. Santa Cruz is a territory of great promise; it is the country for sheep-breeders and miners as we said in 1879 (La Patagonia Austral, Buenos Aires).

The principal export is wool. In the year 1890, at Port Gallegos alone, nearly 30,000 kils were loaded and sold in Liverpool and London at the rate of 6, 7 and 9 pence the pound. In the same year about 800 quillangos and 500 kls of ostrich feathers were sent to Buenos Ayres. During the years 1888-1890 the territory had exported to Punta Arenas about 2000 cows and more than 1000 horses and mules The cows fetch from 20 to 25 dollars each in the adjoining Chilian territory. The horses are sold with greater facility, and for an animal two years old, healthy and tamed, 80 to 100 dollars are obtained. The same horse would be worth 18 dollars in Buenos Ayres.

The prices of live stock, generally speaking, are as follows in Rio Gallegos:—

A steer of 300 kils.....	30
A Lincoln sheep.....	6

THEATRES.

The champion draught players are coming forward. Last night a very hard fought, and most interesting game was played between Mr. E. M. Prosser and the Automaton, which finally resulted in a victory for the first named, amidst great applause from the large audience assembled, who had followed every more of the game most eagerly. The Kinetophone is also a great success, many of the best families in town visiting the place daily. The views will be changed to-day.

The great sight in the city to-day will be the grand procession that leaves the Arcadia at 3 o'clock. This will be on a scale never before seen here and will not only show the wonderful strength of the Company, but will prepare the public for the great wild west show that will be given to-night.

One of the prettiest and best ventilated theatres is the Mayo, and the Company that at present occupies the house cannot be improved upon. The "piéce de resistance" is "La Cadena de Fuego" which is splendidly interpreted by Sra. Carlota Millanes, and Señores Antonio Abad, Ferrer and Sanromá. This piece is considerable above the usual run of pieces given at the sectional theatres, and the music is beautiful. One of the prettiest numbers in the duet sung by Sra. Millanes and Sr. Abad in the first act, which was loudly applauded by the large audience present. To-night in addition to "La Cadena de Fuego", they produce for the first time a most comical piece entitled "Los Amigos de Benito" in which Sra. Maria Millanes, and Sres. Diaz and Sanromá appear.

The Comedia was last night the scene of indescribable enthusiasm on the occasion of the production of the new Zarzuela "Las Zapatillas" written by Professor Chueca the author of the "Gran Via." The applause was deafening and the encores innumerable. To-night in consequence of the signal success archieved, the piece will again be given in the 2nd and 4th sections. Take our advice readers—go and see it for yourselves.

Thanks, Messrs. Morales and Co., for your kind N. Y. card and wishes, which we fully reciprocate. May everything end in smoke—tobacco smoke—for you during the year.

FROM THE ATLANTIC TO THE PACIFIC.

THROUGH THE ANDES IN A COW-HIDE CANOE.

IV

We asked the price of the boat and were told it was worth $9. We offered to pay double or even 3 times that price for it, but nothing would do. It had to be taken back, and we must acompany the Indians to their chief, who would decide our fate. After three days' work with Indians and oxen we made a road along the river bank and dragged that confounded canoe up to its place, this work costing us more than $50. We went then to the chief village, about a league away down stream, and did not again get to be our own masters until we arrived in Valdivia. Our capturers treated us fairly well and tried not to let us see we were in reality their prisoners. We were not disarmed and were allowed to go out shooting and exploring the river. It was during our 15 days' stay among these gentlemen we discovered the Cordrews fall. The number of Indians must have been about 800, living more or less in the same way as the Argentine Indians already spoken of. Their chief, whose name was Puelpan-Milimil, did not speak a word of Spanish and kept up three houses, to my knowledge, each with its one or two wives. In the one, where we first stayed, he had two, a mother and daughter. These Indians are smaller and are less civilized than the "manzaneros" at Lancar. Outside of cotton cloth and sugar, of which latter they were very fond, they made or grew everything they required. The women work harder than the men. Their food is almost purely vegetable. Relationship is very much mixed among them. Everyone appears to be a brother or uncle of everybody else, while in reality no such relationship exists. There is no intoxicating liquor made among them.

We continued our journey down river to its month at Lake Paugipulli after 10 days. The chief had sent a messenger down to Valdivia, 25 leagues away, asking the 'Intendente' or Mayor what he should do with us, with the result that we were allowed to proceed.

We went on bare back the 3 or 4 leagues to Paugipulli, where we had another long delay for want of a boat. The habits and life among these Indians "Aurocanos" I will leave for the moment and continue our journey.

A fine big dug-out was at length hired to continue our journey, and by paying one paper dollar more the King, Puelpan-Milimil, came himself to see us along safely.

The Caillitué runs into Paigupulli at its South-Eastern corner, while the river Riñihué runs out, 600 yards away from its South-Western corner. We went to examine this river, and although I have only seen a short piece of it, I believe it is much less rapid and with much more water than either the Huahuumor or Caillutué. The Indians say they run down in their canoes to Lake Rinihue, a distance of 4 leagues more or less. Knowing as I do these people, I am sure there are no great obstacles or falls, and its canalization would be easy. As to a railroad on its banks, I can say nothing but that the Andes are passed at Pirihueico, and timber covered hills would be the only drawbacks. Lake Riñihue is a little longer than Lancar. On April 17th, we finally started from Paugipulli, rowing across to the Eastern side where we went on horseback across the triangle to the Rio Calle Calle, a journey of one day over very bad roads. From this point we continued down the bank of the Calle Calle to San Pedro, where we crossed over to the Southern bank and continued our journey to Valdivia. By simply saying that large boats go up to Lake Riñihue to bring down tan bark, I need not make any remarks on the possibility of constructing a canal in this river. A railroad was under construction from Valdivia to Villarica and ran up the South bank of this river to San Pedro.

The state of my arrival will be left over to my next, as also my experiences in Valdivia before getting some new clothes. I will simply say we were a very disreputable crew to look at, as we rode into the city on bare-back.

I have had occasion to see Kincaid, Costa and Company's map of their proposed railroad, and that they had elected the very spot to cross the "divortia aquarum" mentioned in the first part of this letter. I have crossed the Andes in the Uspallata pass and have seen the Transandine Railway in construction. I am not an Engineer, but nevertheless I am positive that a road could be laid here to the Pacific coast at a tenth part of the cost of the Trasandine line running through the Uspallata pass. True, it is not so direct nor would it run through such a populated country, but it would be cheaper and easier laid, and as the soil and climate are far superior to the soil and climate of the North, once having a way of communication the population would soon come of itself. We bring timber from North America to B. Ayres. Why not think for a moment of the immense advantages of getting timber from the Andes?

A ship canal in the present day would not pay, but I hope to live to see a good canal built and paying a handsome lividend to its shareholders.

My note-book gives me lots more to write about; but you asked me to make this short, and my notes will keep.

Until another spare moment.

Yours,

Canada.

CONGRESS.

DEPUTIES.

Among the business laid yesterday on the table of the House was the committee report on the railway guarantees Bill. A letter from Mr. Pelleschi was also read in which that gentleman retracts what he said in the former letter already published with reference to the furniture for the new Senate-Chamber. It was decided to print in pamphlet-form all the various documents relating to this much vexed and delicate question in order to afford the honorable Deputies full opportunity to judge of its merits and demerits.

The Custom-House law in revision from the Senate was then taken into consideration, with the result that the House decided to refuse to accept the reductions made by the Senate in the duty on Brazilian tobacco, fariña and cacao.

The House also decided to insist on the form in which had been sanctioned originally the licence-regulations for coasting craft in connection with the April decree, requiring a certain percentage of the crews to be Argentine citizens, etc.

The Bahia Blanca to Neuquen railway extension Bill, in second revision from the Senate, was also placed in discussion, but when a vote was about to be taken it was found that there were not sufficient members present to form a quorum and the sitting was forthwith brought to a close.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

That miserable "chirinada" in the Transvaal disappointed everybody yesterday. Dr. Jameson is, after all, only a lath painted to look like a blackthorn. The whole world was looking out for a rattling shindy; Germany and France were in a passion, a general "fandango" to give humanity a shake seemed on the cards, when lo! the whole thing ends in "eleven killed and 23 wounded"!! Why the last "pulperia" invasion of Corrientes, where Governor Virasoro led his men so gallantly, was far better fun. Jameson! Never more be countryman of ours.

Our packet edition by the French packet is on sale to-day. It contains a Summary and sundry statistics of 1895.

There was nothing very new or striking about the strike of the dock labourers yesterday. The men were still "out", both here and at La Plata, but they had no spring in their heels, or toes either and there was a decidedly wish-we-had-n't look about the whole of them. The employers look on the movement as already played-out.

The heat yesterday was well up to the "refresco" mark, with the consequent increased circulation of rag money bartered for liquids. Some of our bucolic friends said that a little more rain would do no harm; but as the Wigginses have gone into retreat, there is nobody to tell us when the next shower is due.

There were no fresh yellow fever or cholera alarms yesterday, we are happy to say. In fact the only sanitary news was that the Health Board itself was very much out of joint and badly in want of repairs and reorganization.

The Chief of the Staff, General Capdevila, received news yesterday of the arrival at Choel-e-Choel of Colonel Rodriguez and his Division, after a very severe march, as from Hucal ouwards there was the very worst of water and no grass. Two soldiers were drowned while crossing the Colorado, which is much swollen.

It may interest many of our readers to know that Bechualnaand, which is now the scene of hostilities in British Africa, was discovered by Major Rickard, who 30 years ago directed the mines in San Juan and commanded a regiment in that province when Sarmiento was Governor. Major Rickard is now called Rickard Seaver. He it was who launched with such brilliant success 'The Chartered Company'. The business gave him a large fortune.

All the free passes on the tramways are now stopped, and there is a wail of grief all through the town; but the Municipality with its new decree is responsible for the whole business.

From the tenour of advices received by the last mail it seems pretty clear that Ashantee will very soon be annexed, and the expedition which has just left England will carry out the programme. Everyone who is acquainted with the frightful barbarities of the Ashantee King will hear with pleasure of his downfall, as a more barbarous savage never sat on a throne. The Ashantee country is very rich and fertile, and it will be a gain for humanity that England annexes the whole country.

The Italian steamer just entered has brought out another splendid batch of emigrants, 1200. All fresh hands for the harvest. Good news for our friends in the colonies, where labour is so scarce and dear that the poor farmers can hardly get in their crops.

Mr. Michael J. Byrne requests us to acknowledge, with much gratitude on the part of the Committee, the sum of $100, the annual subscription of the London and River Plate Bank to that most deserving institution the Irish Orphanage.

A meeting took place on Thursday night at a house situated Calle Cerrito corner of Cuyo, to express sympathy for the Cubans who are just now fighting for liberty and independence. About two hundred influential gentlemen assembled, and after the usual preliminaries a provisional Committee was formed, Señor Don A. Belin Sarmiento being elected President. It was resolved to make a collection for the wounded Cubans and to promote feelings of sympathy with their cause in this country. We shall report the further doings of the Committee to enable those of our readers whose sympathies run that way to give expression to them in a tangible manner.

Ho! Ho! Tierra del Fuego has been made, in a sense, a Penal Settlement. For the future all back-sliding citizens who come before the Judges a second time will be sent there to work out their sentences.

Mr. Vargas, the eminent photographer at 425 Calle Victoria, has favoured us with a splendid photo of the reporters in Congress. There they are, seated in their comfortable gallery with the Sergeant at Arms, Ortelli, behind them, looking on paternally. The STANDARD reporter, as representing the Father of the Argentine Press, has the seat of honour in the centre. All the likenesses are most striking, and we congratulate Mr. Vargas on his really magnificent photograph, which we will send to our friend Moody to frame.

We are asked to call attention to the notice that appears in these columns of the adjourned general meeting of the Buenos Aires Choral Union that will take place on Tuesday next at the "Enfants de Beranger". Being an adjoined meeting, any number of members present can transact the business, but it is hoped, that in the interest of the society a large number will be present, as many important topics will be discussed.

A most treacherous and abominable murder was last night committed at Calle Belgrano 1115. Mr. Peretti the owner of an ambrella factory there, as he was leaving the premises was mortally stabbed in the stomach by a man who was waiting outside the door. The assassin had had some business transactions with his victim, in whith he maintains he had been unfairly treated.

The latent animosity between the army and police broke out again yesterday at Palermo. It seems that seveaal artillerymen were badgering a passer-by and when the "vigilantes" interfered the soldiers rounded on to them. Side arms and machetes were drawn. Several soldiers and one policeman were wounded before order was restored by half a company of infantry led by an officer from the neighbouring barracks. The brawling soldiers 4 or 5 in number were then very properly escorted to the nearest police-station where they will receive but scant courtesy from the civil force.

In addition to the enormous number of letters delivered and despatched by the G. P. O. on New Year's Day (703,000—including a heavy mail for Europe by the Orione) no fewer than 6000 telegrams were dealt with, and the unfortunate clerks did not get home to bed till midnight. They well deserve the compliments and congratulations addressed to them by the Inspector General.

Judging by yesterday's cablegrams there seems to be a kick, indeed a good many kicks, in the Venezuelan Question yet. Jonathan says he has just discovered in the archives at Washington some thoroughly musty documents that will simply pancake his cousin John's case. Meanwhile the Venezuelan National Guards are all mustering, "their souls in arms and eager for the fray."

We thank Messrs. Galli Bros for late English papers to the 7th day of the 12th month of the defunct year. The illustrated sheets beat Madame Tussaud's Chamber of Horrors with their sketches of the Armenian massacres. They remind us forcibly of the scenes in the cemeteries here during the Yellow Fever Plague of 1870-71. The Archbishop of Armenia does not look as if the atrocities kept him awake at night. He looks more like the President of a New York or Chicago Insurance Company than a cleric of high degree.

Dr. Cane is to be the new Argentine Minister in Paris. He has had a mellowed diplomatic experience, and will be the right man in the right and nice place. We believe Paris is generally admitted to be a very nice place indeed.

The death of the two sailors Goodacre and Eaton of the British s. s. Jeanara, from yellow fever, shows how things are changing here. They died in the Roads and their remains were cremated at Martin Garcia without any more notice than a few lines in the papers. But a few years ago two deaths from yellow fever in the Roads would have thrown the whole population into a hysterical panic and the City Father into fits of D. T (Deliberative Trembling). Now, nobod cares a snap for a few cases of Yello Jack or the Visitor from the Ganges There is more confidence in our Healt authorities, and the drainage works ar an immense help in baffling epidemic disease.

That wonderful will of poor Don Juan Anchorena, who slipped into the Ocean of Eternity under the soothing delusion that he had left his country enough cash to pay off the National Debt two hundred years hence, is most unlikely ever to be carried into effect. Dr. Kier, Attorney General of the Nation, has reported that it must be left to Congress to decide, as the extraordinary bequest violates no end of constitutional and economic principles. That's about it. In England or the United States such a will would be laughed out of the Probate Court and upset on all points.

Many people will feel intensely grateful to our pious contemporary La Voz de la Iglesia for voicing the general opinion that life is too short to even attempt a perusal of the Himalayan Summaries of 1895 published by our enterprising colleagues La Nacion and La Prensa. Some years ago, the happy thought struck the Nacion to publish a nice "Anuario" in book form instead of a summary, and the Voz suggests a return to this happy thought. Summaries, like everything else in the Plate, are being over-done.

We're passionately fond of music, as all our readers know, but have short hair, and mean, with the assistance of the Figaro, who has cropped us for the last thirty years, to keep it short. Nevertheless, it is well for our musical readers to know that a well-known statistician says he has observed that musicians have, as a rule, excellent heads of hair. In the prime of life the musician's hair flourishes most, and in every hundred music devotees only one hairless head is met with; while in other professions about 50 in every hundred are bald. If this is not an inducement for all right-minded young men to learn music or perish in the attempt, we know not what is.

It was reported from Russia some months ago that strychnine would cure men of the appetite for drink. This is undoubtedly true, if enough strychnine be taken. But French physicians have been experimenting, and claim that hypodermic injections of nitrate of strychnine will effectually cure the drinking habit.

One day an intimate friend of Madame Malibran, the great singer, accused her of being too tame in the opening scenes of her characters. Her reply was curious "I look upon the heads in the pit as one great mass of wax candles; if I were to light them up all at once, they would waste, and soon burn out. But by lighting gradually I obtain in time a brilliant illumination. My system is to light up the public by degrees."

Gold Premium.

FIRST RING 230.30%
SECOND RING..... 230.00%

There was a little more life in the gold market this morning, thanks to an active supply of cash gold. The premium ruled very steady and the bulls had lots of paper for all the specie offered. The slight spurt in business sprang from some activity in the produce markets this morning. Over four hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands for cash at the first ring; the premium opened at 230.30 %, rose to 230.50%, fell to 229.80%. and closed at 230.30%. One hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 233%, fell to 232%, and closed at 232.50%—a pretty stiff contango. Business for to-morrow was active and the weekly settlement promises to be lively; over two hundred thousand dollars were sold; the premium opened at 230.30%, rose to 230.40 %, and closed at 230.20%. A fair amount was sold for the 15th, the premium closing at 231%. Something was done for end of February at 234.50%. About nine hundred thousand dollars were sold during the first ring, the market closing steady all round.

National Cedulas F opened at 81 and closed at 80.50. La Plata Cedulas fell from 17.90 to 17.60. Internal Bonds of 1891 and 1892 fluctuated at 76.50 and 77. A few Depositors' Bonds of the National Bank changed hands at 98. Catalinas shares were firmer; they opened at 3.30 and advanced to 3.60.

The following is a summary of the business effected at the first ring to-day:—

$ 403,000 for cash at 330.30-50-30--20-330 329.80-90-330-329.80- 90-330--330.20-30-20-330-330.20-30.

The December liquidation drags on the slow tenor of its way. The delays are caused by a few small hitches of no importance, and differences will be probably paid out to-morrow.

A general meeting of members of the Bolsa will be held on the 7th, at the request of 180 members who urge that the Camara Sindical should reconsider their decision whereby they expelled from the House Mr. Febo Cavassa. The personal nature of the decision of the Camara is familiar to the members; as in all questions of a personal nature, the reconsideration that is urged will raise a heated discussion at the meeting.

A fair business is now going on at the ring, buying gold cash and selling for the end of the month 2¼ points higher. This losing game of the speculation cannot continue long; no wonder there is a sharp demand for paper money. At all the banks the applications for discounts have considerably increased, and rates today for paper are quoted at 7¼ to 8¾; gold bills ruled nominal at 7¾.

In exchange circles the lull continues. There is a superabundance of bills at current rates, but few takers, and business drags at:—

48 5/16-⅜d. on London.
5.09¼-5.10¼ fcs. on France and Belgium.
4.18¼ mks. on Germany.

There is at last some probability of the Cordoba Municipality being able to arrange its gold deposit account with the Provincial Bank. As will be remembered, when the latter got into difficulties it became refractory with its clients, amongst the latter being the Corporation which had in deposit the balance of the gold loan, and when the foreign creditors worried the Corporation, the latter passed the polite remonstrance on to the bank. Of course this could not go on like Tennyson's brook, and we see that the Mayor has been empowered by the city fathers to finance the business with the bank and set the matter up on a straight footing again, which will be hailed as a healthy sign by the bondholders. Whilst on the subject of Cordoba we note a general complaint from the rural districts that the distinction between "meum" and "tuum" is fast being lost sight of altogether, falling into disuse so to speak, through the negligence of the authorities in not asserting the primary principles with due perseverance and vigour. Unfortunately, Cordoba is not the only place where moral perception has lost its keen edge.

The harrying of the farmers at Las Flores goes on with an access of vigour worthy of a better cause, and the victims complain that the bailiffs, invoking the awe-inspiring name of the Mayor, distrain with admirable acumen just what they most require for their work, generally the carts with which they deliver the hay to their customers. Remonstrance is of no avail, neither will the man in possession be persuaded to leave the carts and take something else. He says the mayor told him carts and nothing else, and the farmers have either to pay up this monstrous illegal tax or see their carts distrained and sold. Surely with the gross injustice of these proceedings so patent the Government should put a summary stop to the scandal and make the worshipful mayor aware that trampling on the farmers gratuitously is not a kind of business to merit with moral or material support. It seems strange that Don Narciso, who can realize with such practical force the actual state and facts of the case, has not brought his influence to bear to bring some corrective into play. The whole affair is a crying abuse.

The Customs receipts for the past year in Bahia Blanca as compared with those for 1894 show an advance of $7,372—nothing, perhaps, to chant a pœan over, but always on the right side and satisfactory. The receipts for 1895 were $637,935. Yesterday 161 tons of wool entered the market. A contract has just been signed for a lease of 4 leagues of camp in the Pampa Central at $800 the league, but the names and situation of the camp are kept in reserve.

The accounts of the damage done to the Santa Fé crops by storms and locust, aud of the probable yield, are so contradictory that the following declarations in this regard from such an authorized source as Mr. Rodolf Brühl will be read with interest. Mr. Brühl estimates this year's yield of wheat and linseed as 30% and 50% respectively short of that of previous year, a sledge-hammer plunge that shews clearly all absence of exaggeration in the partial reports of losses previously published. In many colonies, he goes on to say, the linseed is not worth the expense of cutting, and he calculates the average yield per square at 120 to 180 quintals wheat and 110 quintals linseed. In Sunchales the yield for that area is estimated at 200 quintals wheat and 120 linseed, whilst at Ereilla, Ceres and Selva it should be 250 wheat and 150 linseed. In the old established colonies, Esperanza, San Carlos, Las Tunas. Frank Gessler, Santa Maria, San Agustin, Pilar, Progreso and Providencia, the farmers will not get back the cost of sowing. Those situated along the Rosario line to Rafaela will barely pan out 100 quintals of wheat and linseed to the concession which is 20 squares. Those South of Rosario, in Constitucion and G. Lopez departments have done much better and promise 300 quintals and perhaps more. Those on the Central Argeatine and Las Yerbas branch are in precisely similar condition, but in the Capital, San Justo and Reconquista departments, there is a total failure.

Four hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands during the second ring in a dull, flat, and heavy market. The moorings of the contango also began to give way and the difference dropped to two points. A quarter of a million gold was sold for to-morrow; the premium opened at 230%, fell to 229.70%, and closed at 230%. A bagatelle of fifty thousand dollars was sold for the end of the month; the premium opened at 232.50% and closed at 232%. A small business was done for the end of February at 234.50%.

In the speculative circle they called attention to the arrival of the R. M. S. Danube at Montevideo with a heavy consignment of gold; this helped to weaken the gold market.

The following is a summary of the operations effected to-day at the second ring:—

Government has authorized the Engineers' Department to expend $7,529 gold and $33,927 paper in the purchase of perfectly safe ironwork for the bridge over the Rio Vatel.

The Minister of the Interior has accepted the proposal of Mr. F. Nicolini to erect 55 "letrinas" in the Madero port for $1157 each. A stiff contract this!

The Minister of the Interior has ordered $5,000 to be paid to the Engineers Department to begin the works on the port of Parana, and has named an engineer, an assistant and a draughtsman for the work.

The Rentas Office has reported to the Finance Minister that the smuggling of "yerba" from Brazil recently denounced at Arroyo Santo Cristo, Villa Palmira, Campos Novos and other places has been fully proved.

The Finance Minister has refused to revoke the decision of the Rentas Office not to return to Mr. J. A. Haslam lighthouse dues paid for the steamers Crauford and Mokra. The Minister has likewise turned an adder's ear to the petition of the Union Cosmopolita for a higher import duty on odd pieces of materials for carriage building.

The Minister of Finance has decided to take some time to consider Mr. John Alva's petition to be allowed to issue warrants on produce deposited with the Tramways y Graneros de Lujan Company.

The Custom-House receipts to-day were:—

	$ paper	$ gold
Imports and exports to-day.....	167,990	51,450

The Minister of Finance has fixed the price of gold for payment of Customdues at 330 for Saturday, January 4th.

SALES AND AUCTIONS.

The actioneers threw off with a mighty effort some of the plumpudding vis inertiæ to-day and contrived to make a show of doing something, though the amount of business got through was not overwhelming, Mr. Massini took in hand a nice small block of 3750 hectares or say 1½ league in the Rio Negro, Section 6, fraction C., lot N° 66 which will be found marked on the map with the name of Perez, being at the back of Pringles and say a few leagues directly north of the Laguna Abra. The brothers Kincaid, whose fine estancia is in the immediate vicinity, know every inch of this camp well, as 15 to 20 years ago when the Indians still claimed sovereignity in that then almost terra incognita they scoured the neighbourhood, rounding up the cattle from the Scrub, bolearing ostriches and filling the bent of a natural curiosity to know what lay behind them. Mr. Kincaid has repeatedly expressed his opinion that this land is very poor indeed, so that no wonder it should have sold today as low as 1.60 the hectare, say $4,000 the league, the buyer being a Ligurian, Mr. Venturino, and even at that rate it seems quite dear enough with fertile valley lands washed by the smiling river going at $10,000 to 12,000. Why taking into consideration that lands on the river between Chimpay and Chelforó a year ago could not get a buyer at 5,000 the league the price of $4,000 for scrub land seems exorbitant. However, there it is, and it only shews how these southern camps are being snapped up.

Mr. Julio M. Pastaña could not sell a nice farm of 195 hectares in Lobos, surrounded by the Del Carril, Carrauza and Duran properties, with reserve of $70 the hectare.

Messrs. Funes Lagos and Co. sold two fine Durham bulls and a batch of rams brought out by Mr. R. Wright to Messrs. Krabbe Higgins and Co.

PRODUCE MARKETS.

Business all round was slack. Our fashionable artistas did not seem to have shaken off the lethargy of the past days. The sudden fall of fine wool in Europe may have much to do with the condition of our markets. The transactions at the end of the year are well reflected in the operations done, although our Plazas are, we may say, completely full; the competition and bidding between buyers is very slow. The fall in Europe in fine wool is estimated at 30 to 40 cents. This serious fall has come so suddenly on us that we do not understand why prices should change so violently in Europe.

The arrivals were strong, but the sales were not up to the mark. It would seem that very little business will be done before the 5th or 6th of this month. The difference in the wool prices is and must be put down to the speculative feeling in Europe, as long as this lasts we cannot depend either on our own or on the foreign markets.

The papers don't report any sale in the Central; the highest price paid was for a parcel of cross-Lincoln at 11.50; the parcel must have been very good to fetch this prices. The following was sold in our markets:—

CONSTITUCION.

Cross-Lincoln wool—2000 kilos at 11.50, 10000 do do 9.50, 8000 do do 9, 2000 do do 8.40, 6000 do do 8, 10000 do do 7.80.

'Mezcla' wool—200 do at 8.50, 3000 do do 8.10, 15000 do do 8.20 and 8.60, 1500 do do 8, 3000 do do 7.50.

Fine wool—28000 kilos at 8, 10000 do do 7.80, 26000 do do 7.20, 11000 do do 7.10, 10000 do do 6.60.

'Borrega' cross—5000 kilos at 8.50, 2000 do do 7.50, 8000 do do 9 and 7.60.

Inferior—1000 kilos at 4.50.

Do 'desechos'—80 dozen at 0.65, 20 do do 0.62, 100 do do 0.56, 15 do do 0.48, 30 do 0.52.

Do "corderos"—100 dozen at 0.60.

Cow-hides 'consumo'—150 dozen at 9.20, 60 do do 8.80, 150 do do 8.60.

The only business done in Montevideo is concentrated in the saladero line, the sales show the interest for this article noticed in the following sales effected: 5000 to 6000 at 31.25 kilos at 18.50 gold, another 3000 hides were sold at 16.50, Messrs Arribillga and Co. sold 2000 hides at 19.75 the 100 kilos. the other sale was made by Messrs. A. Nata and Compte from 600 to a 1000 hides at 17 dollars the 100 kilos.

Business all round in Montevideo was quiet, exporters seemed anxious to refrain from accepting the terms that the "estivadores" offers. The strike here in Buenos Aires is a little heavy, but we count on so many men that a strike like that is not much noticed.

"The bright, moving picture of the country's trade, commerce and production on the opening year consoles us with the conviction that its future is superior to human error and independent of individual influence."

The above lines, quoted from THE STANDARD of 3rd inst., are the true expression of our sentiments respecting the present position and expected future of the country, if we are to judge from what has occurred to us, as a minute fraction in its common wealth, during the year that has expired, and the hopeful advent of the new one on which we have entered.

If we take our branch of trade, and instance our business in particular, we have to admit that the prospects as regards the country at large are not at all exaggerated in the transcript we have made us of, as the increase in our concern has been beyond our most sanguine expectations during the old year, and, on the eve of the new one, promise is given of a very satisfactory augmentation.

To keep pace, therefore, with this hopeful state of affairs we have made amp e provision, and our stock, which is always kept in adequate supply, will be periodically increased with every novelty to meet the increasing requirements of the year.

The San Martin and Colon will arrive from Montevideo and Colon will sail to morrow for Salto and intermediate ports.

The Eolo will sail from Darsena at 7 p. m. for Montevideo.

GENERAL.

The Eolo and Venus of the Platense line will make special trips to Montevideo to-morrow and on Sunday. The hour fixed for departure is 7 p.m. instead of the usual one, though on both trips the vessel will arrive at the regular hour.

These steamers are especially run for the convenience of those who may desire to witness the race-meeting to be held in the Oriental Capital on the 5th and 6th.

The R M.S. Danube arrived to-day in the port of Montevideo and was at once placed in observation as a case of illness was on board which was qualified as "suspicious" by the health-officer. The passengers for Montevideo were also compelled to land on Flores island where they will tenant the Lazaretto under the ordinary regulations.

A private wire from Rio received to-day states that official data vouchsafed regarding the mortality from yellow fever give 40 deaths on the 30th, 31st December and 1st January. The epidemic is said to be very virulent.

In the same manner the Danube, when she arrives to-morrow in the roads, will meet with such fate as may be accorded her by the health-officer on duty.

Dr. Zavaleta the Sanitary Inspector on on board the Jeanara reports the hygienic condition of that vessel as being the worst possible. Two of the crew have already died from yellow fever, another is lying on board attacked by the same disease and several others shew symptoms of sufiering fram the dreadful epidemic. Notwithstanding this alarming state of agairs, the Ministry of War refuses to hand over to the National Health Board the charge of the floating hospital, a refusal which involves very serious prejudice for the port as there is no other vessel available for such a purpose.

The British s s Galileo. moored in the Boca in front of the Resguardo, heeled over on the land-side this morning, owing to the sudden rise in the river. Happily no one was injured.

Both the British ss. Europa and Etruria are under observation in the roads as they come from Brazilian ports. Only the Jeanara is in quarantine.

Clean bills of health were issued today to the Phœnician bound for London, Nethergate for San Vicente and Edendale for Havre.

The Belgian ss. Besratael from Cardiff with coal for Mihanovich, is expected tomorrow in the roads.

Mr. Maumus the sole arbitrator to decide the respective claims of the ss. Dowgate and sailing craft Grazia de Rosa, has condemned each vessel to pay for the damages inflicted by the other.

The North American cutter Spray lying at the N. E. corner of Dock No 3, will be on view from to-morrow; entrance fee 50 cents.

The German ss Athen arrived yesterday from Campana laden with 34,398 bags of maize for Liverpool. She will take in live-stock here.

The strike among the dock labourers was to-day less general as some 60 men resumed work for the loading and discharging Company and it is thought probable that the movement will fall through. The men on monthly wages employed in the yards of the coal-companies and those in the service of the Confianza Company also continued at work.

A TERRIBLE COUGH.
A TERRIBLE COUGH.

"94, Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12.

"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feeling, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucous, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir yours truly, J. HILL."

"I have, indeed, great pleasure in adding my testimony to your excellent preparation of Cough Lozenges, and I have prescribed it now for the last eight years in my hospitals and private practice, and found it of great benefit. I often suffer from Chronic Bronchitis; your Lozenge is the only remedy which gives me immediate ease. Therefore I certainly and most strongly recommend your Lozenges to the public who may suffer from Catarrh, Bronchitis, Winter Cough, or any kind of Pulmonary Irritation.—Your truly,
